TODAY'S ANALYSIS - by Dan Illman

⟩⟩ RACE 1

1. DIVINING SMILE 2. J CANDY 3. MISS ELLARY

The first post is at 12:00 ET, and there are two "Value Pick 5" wagers, each with a LOW 12% takeout. DIVINING SMILE, listed as a Laurel vet scratch (sick) on both 4/10 and 11/15, returns from a 364-day layoff just as turf season is winding down. Ran well in that last start as she saved ground in midpack, was steadied along the fence on the second turn, altered course up the rail, and rallied for a piece. J CANDY was in too tough on turf at Delaware two back against Mopo, who returned to hit the board in her next two, including a win in the Maryland Million Ladies with an 82 Beyer. Worked out a good pocket trip, but couldn't threaten. MISS ELLARY hasn't raced on turf since the end of last year, but she gave a pretty good try in that Gulfstream heat. Stalked from in between, briefly dropped into the pocket on the second turn as the pace quickened (23.18 third quarter), then got up for second behind the favorite. The fifth-finisher hit the board in her next three with a 78 Beyer top on Tapeta. She stretches back out in distance with the tactical speed to stay within range of the lead. Cheminaud lands here instead of Saucy Six. PEACE POSEY was wired last month at Woodbine, and might receive a stronger race flow to attack. The fifth-finisher from the last race then placed in a $15,000 "beaten" over the Tapeta there with a 65 Beyer. DAWN AFTER DAWN drops in class after being wired by the favorite at Belmont. The runner-up next placed in a $55,000 starter there with a 75 Beyer.

⟩⟩ RACE 2

1. SUSAN'S MULE 2. ALWAYS FORWARD 3. THREE POLKS

SUSAN'S MULE set the pace inside over a speed-friendly Delaware surface, came three paths off the rail into the stretch, then was steadied from in between horses when likely already beaten. The runner-up next won an off-turf first-level allowance with a 79 Beyer. Looks like the main speed once again. ALWAYS FORWARD was outsprinted through a quick opening quarter in the Maryland Million Distaff Starter, found some traffic issues on the turn, then made up almost six lengths in the stretch. Excellent fit at this class level, but I wonder if six furlongs is a bit sharp, especially if the pace is on the moderate side. Historically runs well when returning on relatively short notice. THREE POLKS saved ground near the back, made a four-wide bid on the turn, then got up for second despite being late to change leads. She has enough speed to stay close to the leader for a barn that sent out a 7-2 dirt winner here on 10/30.

⟩⟩ RACE 3

1. JACK RABBITNESS 2. MISCHIEF MIND 3. HERECOMESTHECPTN

JACK RABBITNESS pressed the 9-2 fourth-finisher over a speed-friendly track while racing well off the rail, took over the lead on the turn and stayed several paths off the fence, then held second behind the rail-skimming winner. This owner-trainer combination is 5 for 5 (100%, $5.04 ROI) off the claim. MISCHIEF MIND was wired by an odds-on winner at Delaware. After a sluggish start, he pulled his way forward to sit the pocket over the deeper inside footing, split rivals with an early lead change, then finished behind the two favorites. Think he has the size and pedigree to last two turns for a barn that went 2 for 10 (20%, $3.84 ROI) between 10/17 and 11/3. HERECOMESTHECPTN broke a beat slow, recovered to set the pace inside the 7-1 fifth-finisher, faced strong pressure on the second turn, then understandably tired when debuting around two turns. Expect a hustling ride for a barn that went 14 for the last 30 (47%, $2.15 ROI) with second-start maidens on dirt. BIG NEWS was wired by an odds-on favorite in a slow-paced race. Extra distance should work fine. CONCHO, listed as a Laurel vet scratch (sick) on 10/15, hopped at the start, seemed a bit rank early, stalked four-wide, was bumped by an inner foe when making a four-wide bid on the turn, then finished well with an okay gallop-out.

⟩⟩ RACE 4

1. JERSEY CORN 2. BETTERPARTOFVALOUR 3. UNRELENTINGCOURAGE

JERSEY CORN switches surfaces out of an unraced full sister to Grade 1-winning turf miler Bolo. Tried to rally over a speed-friendly track in a dirt debut, and seems well-entered, stretching out and moving to grass for a barn that went 5 for the last 22 (23%, $3.55 ROI), with experienced runners trying turf for the first time. BETTERPARTOFVALOUR tracked three wide in a lone turf start, attacked outside on the turn, then held well for third in a race won by an odds-on chalk. That heat hasn't come back very strong just yet (six next-out runners, none hit the board, 28 dirt Beyer top). This barn went 26 for the last 112 (23%, $2.10 ROI) when moving from maiden special to maiden claiming. UNRELENTINGCOURAGE battled with the winning favorite all the way around the track before falling a nose shy at Colonial. DE LA PLATA is out of multiple stakes-placed dirt performer Canal Six (75 dirt Beyer). MR GALVAN gets a mulligan for lone turf start, as it came around two turns against Captain Cody (next-out second in Delaware special weight with 56 Beyer).

⟩⟩ RACE 5

1. TASK FORCE 2. BETTER THAN LOTTO 3. GOOD WILLIE

TASK FORCE, listed as a Charles Town vet scratch on 7/9, 8/14, and 9/25, must overcome a 247-day layoff, but he did look pretty good over sloppy going in his lone start this year. Broke a beat slow, tracked from a loose pocket, split rivals three-wide in the upper stretch, and was second best to an odds-on winner. Demand value and use others in multiple-race exotics, as he doesn't have much speed and could use pace and trip aid. BETTER THAN LOTTO didn't do much last month at Delaware when given a fast pace and a closer-friendly track to work with, but perhaps he's at his best around this one-turn mile configuration. He can settle in midpack while saving ground. GOOD WILLIE was wired by an odds-on favorite 15 days ago. Think he'll appreciate this extra distance.

⟩⟩ RACE 6

1. DON’T TELL SUSAN 2. AWESOME LAW 3. NO LAW

DON'T TELL SUSAN switches surfaces out of an unplaced half-sister to multiple stakes-winning turf router Giant Run (96 turf Beyer), and Grade 3-placed turf router Who's Cozy. The second dam was a Grade 2-winning turf router. Wired over a speed-friendly track in a race where they ran 1-2 around, he likely gained fitness from that dirt outing. Lopez departs this one and Awesome Law for Tapit Tom. AWESOME LAW broke a beat slow at Colonial, advanced into the pocket, tracked from in between after a half, eased out into the stretch, and flattened out just a bit. The runner-up then graduated in a special weight in Indiana with a 60 Beyer. NO LAW steadied on the first turn on turf three back while racing outside in midpack, swung five wide, then swapped back to his left lead when facing tougher in New York. The fifth-finisher next graduated in a state-bred $50,000 maiden claimer at Belmont with a 55 Beyer. Both ROYAL AUTHENTIC and WALKER deserve consideration if they are able to escape the Also Eligible list. WE'RE IN THE MUNNI ($8,000 yearling; $10,000 May juvenile) is out of stakes-winning turf router Colonial Flag (94 turf Beyer). CASS NINE switches surfaces as a half-brother to stakes-winning turf router Crisper (87 turf Beyer), out of stakes-placed turf miler Je Suis Enchantee (81 turf Beyer). TAPIT TOM ($25,000 yearling; $35,000 May juvenile) is a half-brother to stakes-placed turf miler Spiritinthenight (81 turf Beyer). LETSBEATTHETRAFFIC ($10,000 June juvenile) is a half to Grade 3-winning dirt router Accidental Hero out of a stakes-placed dirt sprinter (63 dirt Beyer; won debut).

⟩⟩ RACE 7

1. SR SEVENTYONE 2. CAN AM WINNER 3. WEAVER

SR SEVENTYONE stalked three-wide at the back over an outside-friendly Delaware track, made a four-wide bid on the turn, and never threatened in the stretch. Beaten by an odds-on favorite that day, he also finished behind a speedy, promising turf runner in Scabiosa. Perhaps she can tuck in behind the speeds after breaking from the inside draw. Cheminaud lands here instead of Better Every Day. CAN AM WINNER prompted three wide over a speed-friendly Delaware track, made an outside bid to the front on the turn, then drew off despite failing to change leads. This barn went 9 for the last 24 (38%, $9.07 ROI) with last-out maiden winners. WEAVER broke slow from the rail, raced on the deeper inside footing at the back under urging, then never got involved when finishing behind the top pick. Expect improved speed for a barn that went 4 for 12 (33%, $2.30 ROI) between 10/23 and 10/30. HAPPY ENCOUNTER showed some grit when rallying to graduate eight days ago. Might get a hot pace to attack here. BEFUDDLED, listed as a Laurel vet scratch (sick) on 10/18, drops in class after facing Whose Notion, who then ran third in the Maryland Million Lassie with a 59 Beyer.

⟩⟩ RACE 8

1. DREAM OVERTURE 2. GRIPEN 3. SONIC SASS

DREAM OVERTURE seeks third straight win after nice trip and ride late last month. Bumped at the start, settled outside in midpack behind a quick pace, dropped inside a bit on the second turn, altered course back outside, and drove past the leader. Beat three of these that afternoon, and can settle behind solid splits once again. This barn went 5 for 12 (42%, $2.88 ROI) between 10/25 and 11/1. Boyce lands here instead of V Inspired. GRIPEN cleared off to set an uncontested pace on turf two back, faced pressure from the 7-1 runner-up after slowing down the pace, then tired inside and wasn't persevered with when obviously beaten. She might be the speed of the speed. SONIC SASS gave a strong late kick to finish behind the top pick after a short layoff. Expect her to sit back and attempt to make one run for a barn that sent out a 7-2 winner on 10/30.

⟩⟩ RACE 9

1. CHASING SUNSETS 2. GOLDEN ROCKET 3. DOUBLE AIRO

CHASING SUNSETS had things go her way at Charles Town three weeks ago. Cleared off to set a reasonable pace (opening quarter in 24.05), then kept finding more in the stretch. She was good enough to graduate at Keeneland during their spring meet, and can get close to the pace once again. GOLDEN ROCKET moves to dirt after being reclaimed by a red-hot barn. Hit the board in her last three dirt starts, including a third-place effort on 2/12, a race won by Greek Heiress (hit the board in her next two starts with an 82 Beyer top). Stablemate DOUBLE AIRO pushed a fast (22.10; 22.42) and contested pace before tiring at Colonial. The fifth-finisher has since compiled a 4-1-0-1 record with an 81 Beyer top. Her speed plays very well in this spot. KILO ROAD has angles dropping in class and going second off the layoff after being wired by odds-on Alani. Kicks on in the stretch.

⟩⟩ RACE 10

1. DON’T DO IT 2. CONTINENTALDRIFTER 3. MATADORA

DON'T DO IT pulled to track a fast pace from the outside going long two back, raced in behind briefly in the upper stretch, then was outpaced badly in the final three-sixteenths. Took a step forward in blinkers last time at Meadowlands when wired by the favorite in a race where they ran 1-2-3 around. She shouldn't be too far away when they turn for home, and the barn went 6 for 19 (32% $2.06 ROI) between 10/10 and 11/1. CONTINENTALDRIFTER is a half-sister to stakes-placed dirt sprinter Mattitude (80 turf Beyer) out of a debut-winning dam. Solid work slate for a barn that has been sending out nothing but winners recently. MATADORA saved ground in the pocket behind moderate fractions, altered course three wide into the stretch, then finished evenly on turf two back. Lendalfoot repeated in a state-sired allowance with a 74 Beyer. She has a nice combination of tactical speed and closing kick.

MACK’S FACTS – by Mackenzie Pfeiffer

R1: Sea Lion stretches back out to a winning distance and may find a happy medium for class based on the last two outings. The barn does well maintaining fitness and she may appreciate the freshening. Lucky Louisa might offer value if you can forgive the last outing, her 2-back efforts looks competitive against this group.

R2: Susan's Mule has an advantage with her speed on the inside and looks to be the one to catch. Her recent company lines are strong, a potential single in multi-race wagers.

R3: Herecomesthecptn returns for his second career start with a change in company. The barn does well with 2 y/o runners going long, plenty of reason for improvement here. Keep an eye on Tiz a God, his debut showed an impressive gallop out, he might be a price to use underneath for his 2nd try routing.

R4: I forgive the last out for Betterpartofvalour, who returns to his preferred surface and has reason to improve from the debut with experience. Have a look at Coach Holtz, the barn does extremely well with juveniles and the family has shown well early in their careers.

R5: Task Force looks to be well positioned for his return to the races with a bit of class relief. He has shown well against tougher and the barn does well first off the bench.

R6: Awesome Law returns to a level where he was highly competitive on debut. Combine this with the inner draw and he sits a great stalking trip. Don't Tell Susan may have a genuine excuse for the debut, not with a race under him, he finds the surface he was likely bred for.

R7: Can Am Winner will have to handle winners for the first time here, but her win last out was impressive enough for me. The Allard barn tends to improve with experience and can hold their form, evidenced by 29% with last out winners.

R8: Dream Overture continues to improve, and the latest win sets a new standard. Sonic Sass exits the same race, where she rallied impressively from out of the clouds. Watch her in this 2nd try off the bench.

R9: With plenty of pace signed on here, Kilo Road may benefit with her late kick. Now 2nd off the bench, her last outing against Alani is nothing to discount. Should the track stay wet, Pinotslilgirl is 5/5 on a wet track.

R10: Matadora returns to a sprinting distance and takes a bit of class relief, all while getting back to her preferred surface. Hard to deny she gets the setup here.

TRIPS AND TIPS – by Will Humphrey, In The Money Media

Today's Horses To Watch

Race 3:
Although HERECOMESTHECPTN (2/1 ML) performed below market expectations when finishing fourth on debut in a MSW at Delaware last month, he can be excused for that defeat as he was not only conceding experience to all but one of his rivals, but he also set the pace over a closer-biased racetrack. Dropping in class today, he appears an obvious contender going out for a trainer who is 4-for-7 (57%; $2.89 ROI) with second-time starters moving from MSW to MCL. CONCHO (8/1 ML), listed as a vet scratch on October 15, also deserves consideration following a wide-trip fourth when sprinting on debut that pointed towards him very much being best at a route of ground.

Race 6:
With just a 16 1/2-length defeat and a measly Beyer of 6 to his name, DON'T TELL SUSAN (10/1 ML) certainly doesn't jump off the page as a logical contender in today's sixth. However, when taking into consideration his turf-laden pedigree, sprinting 6 furlongs on the dirt certainly wouldn't be his best game. The fact that he fluffed the start, then didn't appear to appreciate the kickback early, was running against a strong speed bias, and was not persevered with in the final furlong, exacerbating the margin of defeat, essentially allows us to draw a line through that debut effort. He took money leading into that first start, indicating he'd shown some form of promise in his morning work, and with Capuano hitting 19% ($2.54 ROI) when moving horses from dirt to turf, any amount of improvement seems possible. In a race of this nature, at a fair price, he could be worth including on some tickets in the opening leg of the Value Late Pick-5.

Race 7:
Following an excusable defeat on debut where she set a hot, pressured pace in front over a closer-biased track at Delaware, CAN AM WINNER (3/1 ML) stepped forward nicely to shed her maiden tag at the second time of asking when last seen. The Ned Allard trainee caught the eye with the way in which she strode clear of her rivals with good energy and grit, despite having remained on her left lead, likely through greenness. She's now found a winnable-looking spot to follow up making her first start against winners, and with seemingly more to come, she has to be taken seriously for a trainer who hits at 26% with last-out maiden winners (9-for-34; $6.40 ROI).

Race 8:
DREAM OVERTURE (9/5 ML) has really put things together well this summer, breaking her maiden at Colonial in July before going on to score twice more in her most recent two starts. While true that she did receive an excellent pace setup when last seen closing from off the pace, the pace forecast for today's eighth points towards a similar scenario playing out, and the visual impression she left last time – striding clear with good energy late – hints at potentially more to come from her.

FUTURE HORSES TO WATCH

YOUR LORDSHIP
Trainer: Graham Motion
Last Race: May 30, 7th race
Finish: 1st by 2 3/4
Racing as a first-time gelding, Your Lordship rated long with plenty of confidence throughout, waited to pounce in the upper stretch, and angled and swept clear for the win.

SUJO (Breezed 4F - :48.60 at CD on 11/6)
Trainer: Greg Sacco
Last Race: Jan. 16, 7th race
Finish: 4th by 4 ¾ lengths
First-time starter was pinballed from in between horses at the start, and dropped all the way back to last. Started to kick in at the eighth pole, angled to the fence, and just missed getting third on the wire with a nice gallop-out.

D J ABS (Breezed 4F - :50.80 at MTH on 10/22)
Trainer: Lindsay Schultz
Last Race: September 19, 8th
Finish: 2nd by 4 1/4
Juvenile filly has some turf pedigree, and she gave a strong try in her grass debut. Showed decent speed from the start, but had the misfortune to face a sharp, gate-to-wire winner. Stayed on strongly to the wire, and it looks like she's found a home on the green stuff.

SEA ISLE CITY (Breezed 4F - :48.00 at FAI Tapeta on 10/25)
Trainer: Keri Brion
Last Race: Sept. 26, 8th
Finish: 3rd by 1 1/4
Held her inside position over the "good" going, dropped back a bit near upper stretch, then made some ground late to finish third in the Selima Stakes. May prefer firm turf, short or long.

INTREPID'S LEGACY (Handily 4F - :47.00 at LRL on 10/31)
Trainer: Gary Capuano
Last Race: Oct. 10; 10th
Finish: 2nd by 1/2
This is a huge horse that likely needed a race in his first start off a July layoff. Rushed up with a wide bid on the turn before being rebuffed by the even-money favorite.

PERFECT FORCE
Trainer: Jamie Ness
Last Race: October 25, 2nd race
Finish: 4th by 4 1/2
Didn't show much early speed in his first start of the barn, but built momentum at the three-sixteenth before being pinched back between horses at a key juncture.

BUBBLING
Trainer: Jamie Ness
Last Race: October 25, 7th race
Finish: 3rd by 3
First-time starter didn't have the best break, but picked up steam with a wide move into the teeth of the pace before understandably flattening out in the final sixteenth. Expect more early zip next time.

GOLD SOVEREIGN (Breezed 5F - 1:02.80 at FAI Tapeta on 10/9)
Trainer: Thomas Garner
Last Race: September 20, 3rd
Finish: 8th by 6 1/2
Likely purchased by his current connections for future races over hurdles, but this gelding showed decent turf form in longer-distance races in New York and had no chance in his local debut. Fell to his face at the start, then was wired in a paceless heat where they ran 1-2 around the track.

NIAL AND PRAY (Breezed 4F - :50.60 at LRL on 11/1)
Trainer: Joseph Murphy
Last Race: Oct. 10; 6th
Finish: 2nd by head
Broke from the inside for the second consecutive race, then wound up a very wide rally through the turn and into the stretch. Seemed a bit more professional than in his previous start, and was just outkicked by a 3-1 debuter.

KWAN
Trainer: Lacey Gaudet
Last Race: October 18, 2nd race
Finish: 2nd by 1 3/4
Expected to be among the pacesetters when the beaten favorite, he instead broke poorly and was last in the early stages. Made a strong wide move through the turn and into the stretch, and tried hard all the way to the wire. Juvenile filly fits well sprinting on dirt at the $25,000 starter allowance level.

CITRINE
Trainer: Graham Motion
Last Race: October 25, 6th race
Finish: 2nd by neck
Traveled smoothly into the stretch and looked on his way to victory, but was squeezed badly in between horses in the mid-stretch. Altered course to the rail and finished with a flourish, albeit too late.
